

5–10. The Total Army Family Program

The Army places a high value on both military and personal preparedness. Commanders have an obligation to provide assistance to establish and maintain personal and Family affairs readiness.

a. Concept.

(1) The Total Army Family consists of Soldiers (AA, ARNG, and USAR), civilian employees, and retirees, (regardless of marital status), and their legal Family members (if any).

(2) The Total Army Family Program (TAFP) includes those Family assistance services and related programs that support quality of life, readiness, and retention and meet the Army's obligation to Soldiers, civilian employees, and their Families by ensuring the effective interface between Family assistance and Family support.

(a) Family Assistance and Readiness is the contractual or statutory obligation the Army has to provide assistance (for example, ID cards, Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS), Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services, tri-service medical care) to its Soldiers, civilian employees, and retirees (regardless of marital status) and with or without any legal Family members. This obligation also extends to the programs and services commanders use to fulfill their morale, welfare, and quality of life responsibilities, such as Army Community Service (ACS), CYS, and Morale, Welfare, and Recreation Programs.

(b) Family Readiness is the mutual reinforcement provided to Soldiers, civilian employees, retirees (regardless of marital status), and their Family members—both immediate and extended. Examples include Family Readiness Groups (FRG), newsletters, telephone trees, and other volunteer programs and activities.

b. Responsibilities.

(1) The ACSIM will establish policy and ensure coordination and integration of the TAFP through the U.S. Army Community and Family Support Center (USACFSC). The USACFSC will—

(a) Provide guidance, technical assistance, and consultation to support the development and implementation of Family initiative programs, and services.

(b) Identify needs and design and conduct Armywide Soldier and Family member training and awareness events.

(c) Determine requirements and develop training packages for individuals accountable for Army Family program execution.

(d) Provide consultation and liaison with the ARNG and USAR to ensure interaction and synchronization among AA and RCs concerning Family assistance and readiness issues.

(2) Heads of other HQDA Staff agencies (and field operating agency, if appropriate) will be responsible for Armywide policies, plans and initiatives within their areas of proponenty pertaining to the TAFP.

(3) Army National Guard.

(a) The NGB is the Army's lead agency for the establishment and execution of Family assistance for Total Army Families at all levels of contingency and mobilization.

(b) The NGB, through the NGB Family PM will—

1. Provide policy, guidance, technical assistance, and consultation to support the development and implementation of the TAFP within the ARNG.

2. Identify, design, and provide ARNG Soldiers and Family members training and awareness support.

3. Develop training for individuals responsible for Family program execution.

(4) Chief, Army Reserve (CAR), through the Office of the Chief, Army Reserve (OCAR) Family PM will—

(a) Provide policy, guidance, technical assistance, and consultation to support the development and implementation of the TAFP within the USAR.

(b) Identify, design, and provide USAR Soldier and Family member training and awareness support.

(c) Develop training for individuals responsible for Family program execution.

(d) Ensure that regional readiness commands have staffed the centralized Family readiness officer to meet assigned duties and responsibilities.

(5) The ACOM, ASCC, or DRU commanders will provide an environment that encourages an effective Family program. At a minimum, ACOM, ASCC, or DRU commanders will—

(a) Ensure command emphasis at the unit level.

(b) Identify and input fiscal and personnel resource requirements for the TAFP as part of the command operating budget process.

(c) Provide for Soldier, civilian, retiree and Family member participation in quality of life matters. Ensure inclusion of single Soldiers in quality of life programs/initiatives.

(6) U.S. Army Reserve command/CONUS Army/installation/JFHQ/RSC/GOCOM commanders at all levels will provide an environment that encourages an effective Family program and will at a minimum:

(a) Ensure command emphasis to the unit level.

(b) Ensure the designation of a TAFP point of contact as an additional duty in each unit below installation/JFHQ/RSC/GOCOM level.

(c) Identify and input fiscal and personnel resource requirements for the TAFP as part of the command operating budget process.

(d) Ensure Soldier, civilian, retiree, and Family member awareness of the TAFP.

(e) Ensure Soldier, civilian, retiree, and Family member access to entitlements, Family programs, and Family services.

(f) Provide for Soldier, civilian, retiree and Family member participation in quality of life programs. Ensure inclusion of single Soldiers in quality of life programs and initiatives.

(g) Installations/JFHQs will ensure/facilitate appropriate coordination of TAFP elements for all components within their geographical area of responsibility during peacetime or any levels of contingency or mobilization.

(7) Unit commanders at all levels will provide an environment that encourages an effective Family program and at a minimum will—

(a) Appoint a TAFP point of contact as an additional duty.

(b) Provide pre-deployment and reunion briefings as required.

(c) Ensure Soldier and Family member awareness of the TAFP.

(d) Ensure Soldier and Family member access to entitlements, Family programs, and Family service.

(e) Ensure the proper documenting and monitoring of personal affairs readiness of Soldiers, to include Family care plans (see para 5-5).

(f) Ensure inclusion of single personnel in quality of life programs and initiatives.

(g) Maintain, as appropriate to the needs of their units, a unit FRG to encourage self-sufficiency among its members by providing information, referral assistance and mutual support.

(8) Family Program coordinators will—

(a) Advise the commander concerning the impact of the TAFP on retention, readiness, training, and mobilization/deployment.

(b) Coordinate the development of the TAFP.

(c) Coordinate the development of resource requirements to support the TAFP.

(d) Coordinate public/community/employer awareness and support of the TAFP.

(e) Serve as command liaison with military and civilian agencies involved in resourcing and supporting the TAFP.

(9) Soldiers bear primary responsibility for their Family and personal affairs readiness. They should support and participate in the TAFP. At a minimum Soldiers will—

(a) Keep themselves and their Families informed concerning key (unit) personnel information, benefits, programs, and ensure that information regarding the TAFP is provided to Family members.

(b) Support, and where appropriate, encourage their Family members to support programs, services and activities designed to maintain and/or enhance the quality of life and well being of all members of the Total Army Family, for example, FRG, Deployment Cycle Support training, Army Family Team Building, and so forth. Many of those programs, services, and activities are primarily dependent upon volunteers to ensure their success and continued effectiveness.

Appendix J

Army Family Readiness Groups Operations

J–1. Concept and purpose

a. The FRG is a unit commander’s program formed in accordance with AR 600–20. Normally FRG will be established at the company level, with battalion and brigade levels playing an important advisory role. FRG are not a MWR program; a NAFI, a private organization; or a nonprofit organization.

b. An FRG is a command-sponsored organization of Soldiers, civilian employees, Family members (immediate and extended) and volunteers belonging to a unit. FRG will provide mutual support and assistance, and a network of communications among the Family members, the chain of command, and community resources. FRG will assist unit commanders in meeting military and personal deployment preparedness and enhance the Family readiness of the unit’s Soldiers and Families. They will also provide feedback to the command on the state of the unit “Family.”

c. Family readiness is the mutual reinforcement and support provided by the unit to Soldiers, civilian employees, and Family members, both immediate and extended.

d. The rear detachment commander is the unit commander’s representative at home station while the unit is deployed and is the FRG link to the deployed unit. All logistic support for FRG (for example, meeting rooms, nontactical vehicle use, office equipment and computers, newsletters, telephones, and volunteer support) is authorized by the rear detachment commander during deployment.

e. The garrison ACS Center and RC Family Programs Office will assist unit commanders in establishing successful FRG by providing expertise, classes, training, and support to FRG and the FRG leadership, as outlined in AR 608–1.

f. Unit commanders will ensure that their FRG appeal to all service members, civilians, and Family members regardless of rank structure or Family size, composition, language spoken, and other characteristics. Commanders will seek FRG leaders who are particularly adept at energizing both officer and enlisted corps’ Families. FRG that do not reflect their unit’s demographics or have a high level of Family participation will be reevaluated to address impediments that exist toward creating a balanced and representational FRG. Typical issues could be FRG meeting times, unmet child care needs, FRG activities that do not match FRG member needs, FRG that do not provide training programs relevant to FRG Family needs, and other Family support issues.

J–2. Family Readiness Groups roles and functions

a. The FRG mission is to—

- (1) Act as an extension of the unit in providing official, accurate command information.
- (2) Provide mutual support between the command and the FRG membership.
- (3) Advocate more efficient use of available community resources.
- (4) Help Families solve problems at the lowest level.

b. The type and scope of FRG mission activities will depend on a number of factors such as—

- (1) The Commander’s budget for FRG mission activities.
- (2) The identified needs of unit Soldiers, civilian employees, and their Families.
- (3) Command interest and emphasis.
- (4) The number of FRG members.
- (5) The time, energy, and creativity of FRG membership.
- (6) The makeup of the FRG, including the percentages of single Soldiers, number of years Soldiers and their Families have served with the military, number of Families with young children, and other Family composition factors.
- (7) The unit’s training and deployment schedule.

c. FRG are official DA programs established pursuant to AR 600–20. FRG mission activities and appropriated fund expenditures are subject to DOD 5500.7–R, DOD 7000.14–R, 31 USC 1341, and all other applicable statutory and regulatory restraints on official activities, use of appropriated funds, and fundraising.

d. Certain FRG mission activities are essential and common to all FRG. They include FRG member meetings, FRG staff and committee meetings, publication and distribution of FRG newsletters, maintenance of updated Family rosters and Family readiness information, establishment of FRG member telephone trees and e-mail distribution lists, and scheduling educational briefings for FRG members. FRG activity level can vary depending on unit mission and on whether the unit is in pre-deployment or post-deployment, deployed, or in a training/sustainment period at the home station.

e. FRG social activities can enhance Family and Soldier camaraderie, provide stress relief, and reduce Family loneliness during deployments. Social activities will not be funded using appropriated funds. FRG members may use money contained in an FRG informal fund to pay for social activities described in paragraph J–7.

J-3. Resources

FRG mission-essential activities are supported using the unit's appropriated funds, excluding BA11/OPTempo. FRG mission-essential activities authorized appropriated fund support may not be supported with NAFs. FRG mission-essential activities may not be augmented with private money. Such augmentation may be a violation of 31 USC 1345. FRG appropriated fund resources may not be used to support private organization activities, internal fundraisers, or commercial ventures.

a. Government office space and equipment. FRG may use Government office space, computer and office equipment, faxes, e-mails, scanners, and so on to support the FRG mission.

b. Paper and printing. FRG may use Government paper and printing supplies to publish FRG newsletters to relay information from the command and to support any FRG mission activity. Commanders will decide how frequently newsletters will be published. Each unit will have a SOP on the preparation, printing, and distribution of FRG newsletters. FRG newsletters may be distributed by the Army or installation post office or via e-mail to FRG members.

c. Army and installation post offices and official mail. FRG are authorized to use official mail for official, mission-related purposes and as approved by the unit commander.

(1) Unofficial information may be included in an official FRG newsletter, provided: it does not exceed 20 percent of the printed space used for official information; it does not increase printing and mailing costs to the Government; and it does not include personal wanted/for sale advertisements. The FRG newsletter must state whether it contains only official information or both official and unofficial information.

(2) If the newsletter contains both types of information, it will include the following statement: "The inclusion of some unofficial information in this FRG newsletter has not increased the costs to the Government, in accordance with DOD 4525.8-M."

d. Government vehicles. In accordance with AR 58-1, the unit commander may authorize Government vehicle use in support of official FRG activities, including the transportation of FRG members for FRG mission-related activities. Government vehicles may be used to support official FRG activities when—

(1) The appropriate commander determines that the use of the vehicle is for official purposes and that failure to provide such support would have an adverse effect on the FRG mission.

(2) The driver has a valid and current license to operate the vehicle and all other regulatory requirements regarding the use of the Government vehicle have been followed.

(3) The use of the vehicle can be provided without detriment to the accomplishment of the unit's mission.

e. Child care. Depending on availability of funds, unit commanders may authorize appropriated funds for—

(1) Childcare for command-sponsored training in accordance with AR 608-10, paragraphs 3-2 and 3-4.

(2) Needed Family support, including child care, education, and other youth services for Armed Forces members who are assigned to duty or ordered to active duty in conjunction with a contingency operation (see 10 USC 1788(b) and DODI 1342.22).

f. Statutory volunteers. The unit commander may accept statutory volunteer labor to support the FRG mission, as described in paragraph J-4 and in accordance with this regulation. However, FRG volunteers are not considered statutory volunteers when they are participating in social or fundraising activities and are not entitled to reimbursement for incidental expenses during this period of time.

J-4. Volunteers

a. Volunteers. The Soldier and Family Readiness System relies heavily on the support of a professional volunteer cadre. Unit commanders may staff their FRG with volunteers, as provided in chapter 5 of this regulation and in accordance with 10 USC 1588.

(1) FRG volunteers in leadership and key roles, such as the FRG leader, treasurer, key caller, and welcome committee chair, must in-process through the local ACS Center for the active component or through the RC Family Programs Office. Commanders will ensure their volunteers are supervised in the same manner as an employee, that they have a position description, and that they have followed all other legal and regulatory requirements in accordance with chapter 5 of this regulation and 10 USC 1588.

(2) The local ACS center, RC Family Programs Office, or AVCC will provide unit commanders or their designees with expert guidance on the Army Volunteer Corps Program. They will provide commanders with standard FRG volunteer position descriptions and answer volunteer questions. The unit commander will ensure that the AVCC is provided the FRG volunteers' work hours monthly to track volunteerism within their areas of responsibility and for volunteer recognition purposes.

(3) FRG volunteers are authorized to use Government facilities to accomplish their assigned duties. This includes the use of office and meeting spaces; telephone, computer, e-mail, and copying equipment; administrative supplies; administrative and logistical support; and additional equipment. Government computer use, including e-mail and internet use, is authorized for official FRG business only.

(4) To support official FRG activities, FRG volunteers may operate Government-owned or Government-leased nontactical vehicles with a gross vehicle weight of less than 10,000 pounds, provided they meet the licensing requirements set forth in AR 600–55.

(a) The authorization to drive a Government-owned or Government-leased nontactical vehicle will be included in the volunteer’s position description.

(b) Vehicular accidents occurring while an FRG volunteer is operating a Government vehicle must be reported in accordance with AR 385–10.

b. Funding for volunteer support. Appropriated funds may be used to support FRG volunteers, with command preapproval and funding availability. Appropriated funds for volunteer support may be used for—

(1) Training and travel expenses. Commanders may, at their discretion, authorize payment for travel and training of official statutory volunteers.

(a) Authorized FRG volunteer travel may include FRG volunteer visits to geographically dispersed members of the FRG in direct support of the FRG mission.

(b) Enrollment, travel, per diem, and other expenses may be funded for training to improve FRG volunteers’ effectiveness or enable them to accept positions of increased responsibilities. Invitational travel orders are authorized, pursuant to the JFTR, appendix E, part I, paragraph A, and Secretary of the Army travel policy. Funding will depend on command preapproval and availability of funds.

(2) Reimbursement of incidental expenses. Unit commanders may budget for the reimbursement of official volunteer incidental expenses using appropriated funds for FRG volunteers, as authorized by this regulation and 10 USC 588. Volunteers may be provided reimbursement for incidental expenses (out-of-pocket expenses) such as child care, long-distance telephone calls, mileage, and other expenses incurred while supporting the FRG official mission, in accordance with chapter 5 of this regulation and DODI 1100.21 and the commander’s FRG budget standard operating procedure (SOP) (see app J–6).

(3) Awards, recognition, and mementos. Appropriated funds will not be authorized or available for volunteer awards other than official certificates of recognition or volunteer incentive awards in accordance with AR 672–20. NAFs will be authorized for garrison volunteer recognition programs, awards, and banquets and to purchase mementos consistent with AR 215–1. Unit commanders will ensure that their FRG volunteers’ hours are submitted monthly to the garrison AVCC and that FRG volunteers are recognized at garrison community volunteer recognition ceremonies.

c. Authorizing travel. Commanders may not authorize travel or the reimbursement of volunteer incidental expenses for members of their household or other persons that could present a potential conflict of interest (see DOD 5500.7–R). Commanders will forward these decisions to the next senior level officer within the commander’s chain of command for determination. Commanders will seek guidance regarding specific ethics issues from their servicing ethics counselors.

J–5. Family Readiness Support Assistants

In the Active Army, commanders may authorize units to hire Family Readiness Support Assistants (FRSAs) who provide unit FRSA administrative support services.

a. FRSA required training to be completed through classes at ACS, Family Programs, or online at www.myarmylife-too.com. Within the first 60 days of assuming duties, the FRSA must complete the following training classes.

(1) Army Family Team Building Levels I and II.

(2) Rear Detachment Commander Training.

(3) FRG Volunteer Leader Training.

(4) Operation READY FRSA Training.

b. Other recommended FRSA training includes:

(1) Civilian Personnel Office, time and attendance and benefits.

(2) Virtual Family Readiness Group System Training.

c. The FRSA deployment assistant will coordinate training through local community resources and provide administrative collaboration between the rear detachment commander and the FRSA leader. The FRSA deployment assistants will not duplicate services or overlap existing resources in the military community.

d. The FRSA deployment assistant works for the unit commander, who will have day-to-day operational direction of the assistant’s activities. The duties of the FRSA deployment assistant will not conflict with the duties of the volunteer FRSA leadership. The FRSA deployment assistant will not be involved in FRSA informal fundraising activities, casualty assistance procedures, suicide prevention activities, teaching Family readiness training, Family counseling, or other non-FRSA official administrative support duties.

e. The ARNG may hire FRSA assistants to assist the State Family Program Directors at Joint Force Headquarters, and the USAR may hire mobilization and deployment assistants to assist the Family programs directors at regional readiness commands.

J-6. Budget process

a. Family Readiness Groups operations. These are funded by the unit commander's appropriated funds, excluding BA11/OPTEMPO. Commanders will consider FRG mission activity requirements when planning their yearly budget. FRG budget needs vary widely and are highly dependent on location, the unit's mission and deployment situation, the composition of the FRG membership, and component.

b. Family Readiness Groups budget standard operating procedures. Commanders will approve an SOP that describes the support available for FRG mission activities and the procedures for FRG leaders and volunteers to request support. FRG leaders must be familiar with the SOP. A sample SOP is included in Operation R.E.A.D.Y training materials.

c. Government purchase card. Commanders will use a Government purchase card to pay for FRG operating expenses, when practicable. For example, commanders may use their Government purchase card to purchase supplies, equipment, room rental, or any other approved item to support official FRG mission activities. The FRG budget SOP will include a requirement that FRG leaders fill out appropriate forms and submit them to the commander for approval. The SOP will also state the procedures for requesting reimbursement for incidental expenses for FRG volunteers.

J-7. Family Readiness Groups informal funds

a. Authorization.

(1) Commanders may authorize their FRG to maintain one informal fund in accordance with AR 600-20. No more than one FRG informal fund per unit may be authorized. Informal funds are private funds generated by FRG members that are used to benefit the FRG membership as a whole. FRG informal funds may not be deposited or mixed with appropriated funds, unit MWR funds, the unit's cup and flower funds, or any individual's personal funds. The expenditure of informal funds will be consistent with Army Values, DOD 5500.7-R, and AR 600-20.

(2) Examples of authorized use of informal funds include FRG newsletters that contain predominantly unofficial information and purely social activities, including, but not limited to, parties; social outings, volunteer recognition (not otherwise funded with APFs), and picnics.

(3) Examples of unauthorized use of FRG informal funds include augmenting the unit's informal funds (the unit's cup and flower funds); purchasing items or services that are authorized be paid for with appropriated funds; purchasing traditional military gifts, such as Soldier farewell gifts that are not related to Family readiness; and funding the unit ball.

b. Fund custodian. The unit commander will sign a letter designating a fund custodian (treasurer) and an alternate. The fund custodian and alternate must not be the unit commander, a deployable Soldier, or the FRG leader. The fund custodian is responsible for informal fund custody, accounting, and documentation.

(1) The FRG informal fund custodian and alternate are personally liable for any loss or misuse of funds.

(2) After designation of the informal fund custodian, the custodian may establish a noninterest bearing bank account under the FRG's name (never the individual's name). The commander will authorize opening the account and prepare a letter naming the fund's custodian and alternate as persons authorized to sign checks drawn on the account. The commander will not be a signatory on the account.

(3) The informal fund custodian will provide informal fund reports to the unit commander monthly and as requested. An annual report on the FRG informal fund activity will be provided to the first colonel (O-6) commander or designee in the unit's chain of command no later than 30 days after the end of the calendar year. These reports will summarize the informal fund's financial status, to include current balance, total income, and an itemized list of expenditures along with an explanation showing how the expenditures are consistent with the purpose of the FRG informal fund as established in the SOP.

(4) Although not required, commanders may consider requiring the FRG informal fund to be bonded in accordance with the procedures in AR 210-22.

c. The Family Readiness Groups informal fund standard operating procedures. All FRG informal funds will have an SOP. This document memorializes the FRG members' determination of the purpose of the FRG informal fund. The SOP may be a one-page document and must include—

(1) The FRG name.

(2) A description of the FRG's informal fund purpose and functions and a summary of its routine activities. For example, "The FRG's informal fund purpose and function are to provide support and recognition to FRG members during the following life events: births, birthday parties, new member welcome parties, departing member farewell parties, holiday parties, and so on.”

(3) The following statement must be included in the FRG informal fund SOP: “This FRG informal fund is for the benefit of the FRG members only and is established exclusively for charitable purposes and to provide support to Soldiers and Family members as the Soldiers and Families adapt to Army life. It is not a business and is not being run to generate profits. It is not an instrumentality of the United States Government.”

(4) The FRG informal fund SOP must be approved by the unit commander and a majority of the FRG members. It will be signed at a minimum by the FRG leader, the fund custodian (treasurer), and the alternate fund custodian. (A sample informal fund SOP is included in Operation READY training materials.)

d. Fundraising for Family Readiness Groups informal funds. DOD 5500.7–R authorizes official fundraising by organizations composed primarily of DOD or DA employees and their dependents when fundraising among their own members or dependents for the benefit of their own welfare funds. Fundraising will be approved by the appropriate commander after consultation with the DA ethics official or designee.

(1) An Army organization—including, but not limited to, units, installations, and FRG—may officially fundraise from its own community members or dependents and from all persons benefiting from the Army organization. (For example, an installation may benefit from the brigade or unit FRG, thus permitting a brigade or unit FRG to fundraise throughout the installation.) Fundraising must be for the organization’s informal fund, as opposed to a private charity, a particular military member, or a similar cause, and be approved by the commander with cognizance over the organization and coordinated with the commander with cognizance over the location of fundraising if different from the organization area. Commanders will consult with their Staff Judge Advocate or ethics counselor and avoid all conflicts with other authorized fundraising activities.

(2) Commanders may approve requests from FRG informal funds to conduct fundraising events in accordance with the requirements of DOD 5500.7–R as described above and in compliance with AR 600–29.

(3) Informal fundraising that occurs within the Army Reserve will have the approval of the unit commander and the servicing Staff Judge Advocate and/or ethics counselor. To address fundraising issues within the Army Reserve, refer to Army Reserve regulations.

e. Informal fund cap. FRG are not established to raise funds, solicit donations, or manage large sums of money. They are not equipped to handle the stringent accounting requirements that can result from excessive informal funds. FRG informal funds will therefore not exceed an annual gross receipt (income) cap of $10,000 per calendar year from all sources, including fundraising, gifts, and donations. Unit commanders may establish a lower annual income cap.

(1) State and local laws and the requirements of Status of Forces Agreements may make a lower FRG informal fund cap necessary at some locations within or outside the continental United States. Commanders and fund custodians will consult their Staff Judge Advocates to ensure that FRG informal funds comply with all local requirements.

(2) FRG informal funds may only be raised and maintained for specific planned purposes consistent with the purpose of the informal fund. If the purpose of the fundraising event is inconsistent with the FRG informal funds SOP, commanders will not approve the fundraising event.

(3) The FRG informal fund ledger will reflect the costs earmarked for the planned event. For example, if an FRG is planning a holiday party with a planned cost of $3,000, the ledger might reflect the following costs: dinner $2,100; hall rental $250; and band $650.

f. Gifts to Family Readiness Groups informal funds. Unit commanders may accept an unsolicited gift or donation of money or tangible personal property of a value of $1,000 or less for its FRG informal fund after consultation with the unit ethics counselor. Unsolicited gifts or donations to the FRG informal funds are considered income and impact the FRG informal fund annual income cap of $10,000.

J–8. Family Readiness Groups external fundraising

As an official activity of the DA, the FRG may not engage in external fundraising and may not solicit gifts and donations. However, in accordance with AR 1–100 and with the advice of the ethics counselor, commanders and FRG leaders may, in response to an appropriate inquiry, inform potential donors of the needs of the Army in relation to assisting Army Families.

J–9. Unsolicited donations to the active component

a. Appropriate gift acceptance authorities may accept unsolicited gifts and donations made to the Army intended for FRG support; these donations will be added to the garrison’s FRG supplemental mission account, pursuant to paragraph 3–2*a* of this regulation and AR 215–1 after consultation with an ethics counselor. The director, MWR (DMWR) will assign these donations intended for FRG use to program code SA, department code “9J,” to prevent disbursing donations intended for FRG use into another ACS mission or for any other purpose. These supplemental mission donations do not expire at the end of the fiscal year, and balances automatically roll over into the following fiscal year.

b. Acceptance authority levels for unsolicited gifts and donations to the FRG supplemental mission account will be in accordance with the rules governing gifts to NAFI in AR 215–1.

c. Supplemental mission donations are NAFs that may be used only to supplement the mission activity. They are not MWR NAFs. MWR NAFs may not be expended for FRG support. Commanders may use supplemental mission donations intended for FRG for any purpose that the commander determines clearly supplements an established mission of the FRG so long as appropriated funds are not authorized. However, in accordance with the policies listed in chapter 5 of this regulation, supplemental mission donations may be used for reimbursement of statutory volunteer incidental expenses if appropriated funds are not available. The use must be consistent with this regulation and the provisions governing supplemental mission NAFs in AR 215–1 and DODI 1015.15.

(1) The first priority in using supplemental mission NAFs intended for FRG is to encourage maximum attendance and participation at FRG meetings—for example, by providing food and refreshments. Using supplemental mission NAFs to support a unit ball is an example of an unauthorized expenditure because it fails to supplement an established mission of the FRG.

(2) Commanders may not authorize the use of supplemental mission NAFs for any purpose that cannot withstand the test of public scrutiny or which could be deemed a misuse or waste of funds. Using supplemental mission NAFs to fund a lavish cruise to promote "cohesion" among FRG members is an example of an excessive and inappropriate use of funds.

d. Supplemental mission NAFs are not informal funds. The provisions concerning informal funds contained in this regulation are inapplicable to supplemental mission NAFs. Supplemental mission NAFs will not be deposited into an FRG informal fund and will not impact the annual FRG informal fund income cap.

e. The DMWR will properly disburse supplemental mission donations intended for FRG support. The unit commander will submit an approved purchase request that includes a brief description of the item(s) requested, total funds required, dates the items are needed, and vendor or source of the items to be purchased to the DMWR for processing. The DMWR will disburse such supplemental mission donations between FRG supported by that garrison's ACS Center, to include recruiting and the Army RC. ARNG units are not included for these supplemental mission accounts.

f. Garrison commanders may accept unsolicited gifts into the supplemental mission program when the donor intends the donation or gift to be used only in support of FRG that are experiencing certain deployment cycle events, such as preparing for deployment, deployment, and redeployment. The DMWR will ensure that the supplemental mission donations are disbursed to FRG whose Soldiers are experiencing the deployment cycle event stated in the donation. This ensures that the garrison fulfills the conditions of the gift which the commander accepted. For example, a donor intends a gift to be used "for the Families of deployed Soldiers." The DMWR ensures only FRG whose units have deployed Soldiers share in the supplemental mission donation.

g. The garrison commander may not accept unsolicited gifts into the supplemental mission program when the donor intends the donation or gift to be used only by a named FRG. For example, a donor intends a gift to be used "for Brigade X's FRG." Garrison commander must decline the gift because it creates disparity between FRG experiencing the same deployment cycle events.

h. Commanders and FRG leaders must be careful to avoid stating or implying that the Army officially endorses any person or private organization that offers a gift. The commander and FRG leadership may not promise donors that donations are tax deductible. Businesses may be encouraged to speak with their tax adviser regarding business tax deductions.

i. Any commanders who are offered donations they may not accept, will consider referring the prospective donor to other Government or private organizations, such as Army Emergency Relief, local tax qualified charities, foundations, and fraternal or service organizations.

j. Commanders will seek guidance from their servicing Judge Advocate and ethics counselor when they receive offers of unsolicited donations for FRG support. For further regulatory instruction regarding gifts offered to the Army or to individuals (see AR 1–100 and AR 1–101).

J–10. Unsolicited donations to a Reserve Component

The procedures for accepting donations or gifts for an RC may differ, depending upon location and activation status. For RC units attached to an Army garrison or installation, see instructions above regarding the acceptance authority for accepting unsolicited donations intended for FRG support. For guidance regarding gifts intended for an RC not attached to a garrison or installation (see AR 1–100 and AR 1–101). Commanders are also encouraged to seek guidance from their ethics counselors (for specifics, refer to Reserve Command regulation).

J-11. Private organizations

Private organizations (POs) have substantially more authority than FRG to conduct fundraising and to engage in social activities in accordance with AR 210-22, AR 600-29, and DOD 5500.7-R. Individuals may establish POs that share the same Family readiness goals and objectives as FRG. To prevent potential conflicts of interest, if such POs are established, managers or board members of the PO will not also be placed in FRG leadership positions. It is essential that commanders and Government personnel treat such POs in the same manner as all similarly situated POs. Commanders may not direct the establishment or the activities of a PO and must treat POs according to the requirements of AR 210-22, AR 600-29, and DOD 5500.7-R, as applicable. Commanders will seek guidance from their servicing Judge Advocate's office and ethics counselor regarding private organization issues.

J-12. Commercial sponsorship

FRG may not enter into commercial sponsorship agreements. Commercial sponsorship is an agreed upon arrangement under which a business provides assistance, funding, goods, equipment, or services in exchange for public recognition or other promotional opportunities on the installation. In accordance with AR 215-1 and DODI 1015.10, commercial sponsorship is generally only authorized for official MWR programs and events.

J-13. Official information

Official FRG information relates to command and mission-essential information that the commander believes Families need to be better informed. Official information relates to unit mission and readiness. It includes training schedule information, upcoming deployments, unit points of contact, and the chain of concern. Official information is subject to all applicable regulations governing its use and to guidance in AR 25-55 and 5 USC 552(b).
